WHEREAS, the Office of the City Secretary of Quezon City has prepared in July of 1987 a new organization structure and staffing pattern designed to adequately meet the needs and requirements of the new City Council;

WHEREAS, funding for the above-mentioned organization structure and staffing pattern is duly provided for in the 1988 Executive Budget of the City Government;

WHEREAS, this staffing pattern which reflects the titles of positions and their respective rates of compensation, has been submitted to the MMC since November 24, 1987 for approval but no action has been taken by that body to date;

WHEREAS, it is the unanimous belief of the members of this body that upon the organization of the City Council on February 2, 1988 the authority to approve the aforesaid organization chart and staffing pattern already belonged to the City Council and not to the MMC;

WHEREAS, there is an urgent and immediate need to restructure the Office of the City Secretary to enable that Office to adequately perform its duties and responsibilities as the Secretariat of the New City Council;

NOW, THEREFORE,
Be it ordained by the City Council of Quezon City
in session assembled;
