WHEREAS, Presidential Decree No. 1866 has codified the laws on matters relating to the manufacture, dealing, acquisition, possession, and disposition of firearms, ammunitions and explosives and had prescribed penalties for violation thereof;

WHEREAS, inspite of the said Presidential Decree, there has been a noted increase of shooting incidents among firearms holders especially in disco houses, bars, night clubs, cockpits, cabarets, resorts, theaters, billiard and pool halls, and bowling alleys and other similar fun houses or establishments;

WHEREAS, to make effective the provisions of P.D. No. 1866 and to greatly minimize, if not totally eradicate, such shooting incidents, it is urgent and necessary to require the owners of such fun houses
