WHEREAS, the Quezon City Girl Scout Council, having the biggest registration of girl scouts compared to other councils in the Philippines, was declared an Outstanding Girl Scout Council in Program and Training;

Three handwritten signatures in black ink, located at the bottom right of the page. The signatures are stylized and appear to be of different individuals.

WHEREAS, the said council has been involved not only in the enhancement of the physical and moral aspects of our female youths but also assists other organizations such as Alay Lakad Foundation, Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD), Tulong Bata Project Foundation, among others;

WHEREAS, Girl Scout of the Philippines has been known locally and internationally of its bold involvement in drug prevention, social and civic works, tree planting, clean and green, Adopt-A-Purok Program and other Religious activities;

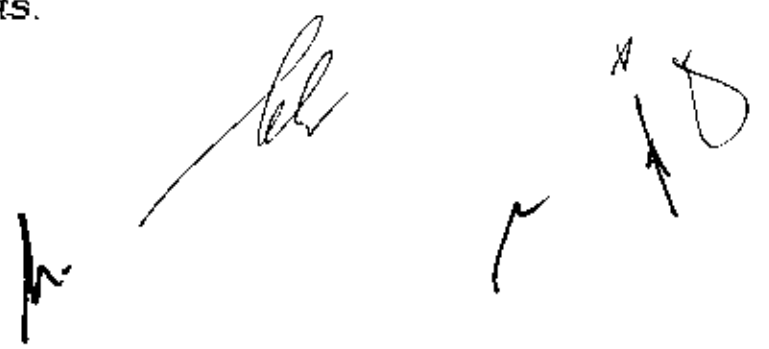

WHEREAS, the Girl Scout Movement, which serves as a training ground for young women, needs our support for its projects/programs and activities through minimal contributions of the general public.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF QUEZON CITY IN REGULAR SESSION ASSEMBLED:

SECTION 1. All cinema owners and operators in Quezon City are hereby required to increase theater tickets price by One Peso (P1.00) for the entire month of October 2008.

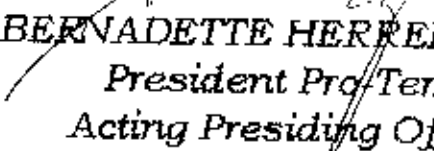

SECTION 2. All proceeds from this fund raising shall be used exclusively to finance all programs and activities of the Quezon City Girl Scouts.

The bottom of the page features several handwritten signatures and initials in black ink. On the left, there is a signature that appears to be 'M'. In the center, there is a larger, more stylized signature. On the right, there are several initials, including 'A' and 'D', and a checkmark-like symbol.

SECTION 3. The City Treasurer is directed to submit a report of the sum collected for the purpose to the City Council prior to the release thereof to its lawful beneficiary the Girl Scout of the Philippines, Quezon City Chapter.

SECTION 4. This Ordinance shall take effect upon its approval.

ENACTED: June 23, 2008.
