WHEREAS, the state recognizes the vital role of the youth in nation building as declared in Article II of the 1987 Constitution of the Republic of the Philippines;

WHEREAS, the construction of a "covered court" in a community is pursuant to the avowed state policy of promoting the physical, moral and social well-being of the youth;

WHEREAS, there already exists an open basketball court at the intersection of Malaya and Angelo Streets, La Loma, Quezon City, which could not be used during rainy days and the better part of the wet season;

WHEREAS, the said basketball court could be put to more uses not only for sports purposes but also for cultural and social activities if only is covered;

NOW, THEREFORE,
