WHEREAS, Section 192 of Republic Act No. 7160, otherwise known as the Local Government Code, explicitly declares that:

"SEC. 192. Local Government units may, through ordinances duly approved, grant tax exemptions, incentives or reliefs under such terms and conditions as they may deem necessary."

WHEREAS, as of January 30, 1993, the amount of Four Hundred Ninety-Five Million Pesos (P495,000,000.00) in the form of delinquent real property taxes, including interests and penalties are due and collectible by the local government of Quezon City itemized as follows:

Taxes - - - - -	P399,193,548.40
Penalties - - - - -	95,806,451.60
TOTAL - - - - -	493,000,000.00

WHEREAS, the Mount Pinatubo eruption, the flash floods and the recent eruption of Mount Mayon have greatly affected adversely the residents of Quezon City, especially the real property owners, through the sudden increase in prices of basic commodities and services;

WHEREAS, by granting relief to delinquent taxpayers the city's various infrastructure projects and the needed basic services would be better realized;
