WHEREAS, many personnel of the Quezon City government have complained of the inequitable implementation of R.A. 6758, commonly known as the Standardization Law, as implemented by the defunct Joint Commission on Local Government Personnel Administration (JCLGPA);

WHEREAS, some of these personnel who were adversely affected by such inequitable implementation were the License Inspectors and Revenue Examiners of the Office of the City Treasurer, specifically under the Inspection and Examination Division, who were classified as Local Treasury Operations Officer I with Salary Grade 11 by the above-named JCLGPA;

WHEREAS, these aggrieved personnel have already appealed their position before the Local Board of Appeals purposely created by the City Council that will hear the grievances of these employees; However, said appeal was denied or disapproved due to the recommendation of the department head, Mr. Alfredo D. Mercado, incumbent City Treasurer, alleging that the consideration thereof be held in abeyance pending the approval of the reorganization of their department;

WHEREAS, it may be recalled that this proposed reorganization has been in the offing since 1992 when the Hon. Immanuel A. Mathay, Jr., was first elected as City Mayor of Quezon City;

WHEREAS, the above personnel have no other recourse except to submit their appeal directly to this august body having been aggrieved since 1989 when the first Standardization Law took effect;
