WHEREAS, Quezon City highly values the education of the constituents with the end view of transforming them into highly productive and self-reliant citizens who have a sense of well being and are morally upright, educated and disciplined;

WHEREAS, the City is likewise cognizant of the important role that education plays as a mode of liberating the poor sector from poverty and ignorance;

WHEREAS, towards the realization of the aforesaid goals, the leadership of Quezon City is doing everything with its available resources to support the needs of our indigent pupils/students for uniforms, school fees, allowances, and school supplies, such as notebooks, workbooks, instructional materials, which as a result of rising prices are becoming too expensive for the common people to afford;

WHEREAS, books and notebooks are important educational aids which are imperative in order to enhance the intellectual capabilities and improve the literacy of school children.
