WHEREAS, in recognition of and building on the achievements of the Child and Youth Welfare Ordinance, and in light of the developments, current issues, persistent problems and emerging concerns involving and affecting children, there is a need to strengthen local legislation to ensure a child-friendly Quezon City.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF QUEZON CITY
IN REGULAR SESSION ASSEMBLED:

ARTICLE I
GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 1. TITLE. This Ordinance shall be known as "THE QUEZON CITY CHILDREN'S CODE OF 2012".

SECTION 2. DECLARATION OF POLICIES AND PRINCIPLES.
- It is hereby declared that the Quezon City government shall adopt the following policies and principles:

(a) It recognizes the inherent rights of the child to survival, development, protection, and participation in accordance with the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and the relevant Philippine laws on children. As such, the City adopts the following core principles of the U.N. Convention and shall uphold the same principles in all matters concerning or affecting children:

1. Non-discrimination - The rights of the child shall be respected without discrimination of any kind, irrespective of the child's or his or her parent's or legal guardian's race, colour, sex, gender, language, religion, political or other opinion, national, ethnic or social origin, property, disability, birth, or other status;

2. Best interests of the child - In all actions concerning children, whether undertaken by public or private social welfare institutions, courts of law, administrative authorities or legislative bodies, the best interests of the child shall be the paramount consideration;
  3. Survival and development - Every child has the inherent right to life, and the survival and development of the child shall be ensured to the maximum extent possible; and
  4. Respect for the views of the child - Any child capable of forming a view has the right to express such views freely in all matters affecting him or her, and the child's views shall be given due weight in accordance with age and maturity.
- (b) It is committed to provide quality service which will make the City an enabling environment for children to grow and develop their full potential at every stage of development and where children are protected by a responsive government from all forms of abuse, neglect, cruelty, exploitation, discrimination, and other conditions prejudicial to their development.
- (c) It shall uphold the sanctity of family life and to protect and strengthen the family as a basic autonomous social institution; to equally protect the life of the mother and the child; and to support the natural and primary right and duty of parents in the rearing of the youth for civic efficiency and the development of moral character;
- (d) It shall establish and integrate affirmative action as a strategy and gender equality as a framework in planning and implementing the City's budget, programs, services, and activities with full recognition of the special needs of girls and of children with disabilities;

SECTION 62. ANNUAL STATE OF THE CITY'S CHILDREN REPORT. – An Annual State of the City's Children Report shall be prepared by the QCCPC. It shall discuss, at a minimum, an assessment of the implementation of the LDPC, an accounting of the Children's Fund based on the Annual Investment Plan, and future courses of action to be taken to fully implement the LDPC.

ARTICLE VIII
FINAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 63. CHILDREN'S FUND. – All levels of local government shall establish a Children's Fund to support the implementation of this Code. A minimum of one percent (1%) of the Internal Revenue Allotment (IRA) of all levels of local government shall be set aside for this purpose. The Children's Fund shall be distinct and separate from the amount mandated under other laws, such as but not limited to the one percent (1%) of the IRA under the Juvenile Justice & Welfare Act of 2006 and the One Million Pesos (Php 1,000,000.00) of the Children's Welfare Fund established in Ordinance No. SP-1624, S-2005.

SECTION 64. ANNUAL INVESTMENT PLAN. – All levels of local government shall formulate an Annual Investment Plan to efficiently allocate the Children's Fund for its programs, projects, and activities to implement this Code.

SECTION 65. PENALTIES AND SANCTIONS. – Violations of any provision of this Code and its Implementing Rules and Regulations shall be penalized and sanctioned in accordance with the provisions of applicable administrative law, civil service, special laws, or other appropriate laws. Where specific penalties and/or sanctions are provided in this Code, the same shall be applied without prejudice to the imposition of other penalties as may be provided in other laws.

Any parent or guardian found to be grossly negligent in the performance of the duty imposed by this Code shall be punished as follows:

- a) For the first offense, counselling, parent education, and/or community service as may be imposed by the SSDD and with written warning from the SSDD that the appropriate criminal and civil charges under pertinent laws shall be filed for second and subsequent offenses; Provided, that community service shall not be longer than five (5) days for such offense.
- b) For the second and subsequent offenses, the filing by the SSDD of the appropriate charges for child abuse under Republic Act No. 7610 and/or Petition for Involuntary Commitment pursuant to Presidential Decree No. 603, or other criminal or civil cases under applicable laws.

SECTION 66. IMPLEMENTING RULES AND REGULATIONS.

- Within ninety (90) days from the approval of this Code, the QCCPC shall formulate and issue the appropriate rules and regulations necessary for the effective and efficient implementation of any and all provisions of this Code.

SECTION 67. SEPARABILITY CLAUSE. - If for any reason or reasons, any part or provision of this Code shall be declared or deemed to be unconstitutional or invalid, other parts or provisions hereof which are not affected thereby shall continue to be in full force and effect.

SECTION 68. REPEALING CLAUSE. - Pertinent Provisions of the Quezon City Child and Youth Welfare Ordinance (Ordinance No. SP-572 S-97), and all other Ordinances, Executive Orders, Rules and Regulations or parts thereof which are inconsistent with this Ordinance are hereby repealed or modified accordingly; Provided, that provisions of the Child and Youth Welfare Ordinance affecting or concerning children consistent with this Code, existing national laws and the best interests of the child shall remain in force.
