WHEREAS, the proliferation of illegal drugs and its unabated use is one of the leading causes of destruction of life and family and now classified as heinous crime in all civilized society;

WHEREAS, the sale of illegal drugs is likewise governed by the law on supply and demand. Thus, while the law enforcement agencies are doing their best to eliminate the supply of drugs in Quezon City, there is a need to cut-off the demand;

WHEREAS, cutting-off the demand for illegal drugs entails full and direct education of persons affected and those who are target for its supply in order to deter and prevent them from using illegal drug, especially the youth who are considered to be the most vulnerable to abuse the use of illegal drugs;
