WHEREAS, the use or play of firecrackers and pyrotechnic devices is one of the traditional ways of holding Holiday revelries such as Christmas and New Year's Eve, family rejoicing, and other kinds of momentous festivities;

WHEREAS, in doing so, it has been the practice of the celebrators and merrymakers to use their streets, alleys, open spaces and other public places for firecrackers explosion, fireworks display, and similar activities without regard to the hazard that it may cause to the public;

5 6

WHEREAS, taking advantage of the increasing demand for the use or play of firecrackers and pyrotechnics, there are unscrupulous traders who, in the desire to earn easy money, are selling in bulk substandard items even in sidewalks to the detriment of the public;

WHEREAS, it can be gleaned from the newspapers and television reports that after the revelries, with the use of firecrackers and pyrotechnic devices, there is always an occurrence of injuries, deaths, and damage to properties;

WHEREAS, the pathetic victims of these unmindful activities are usually the innocent passersby and homebodies who, by accident or negligence of others, succumbed to death or losses part/s of their bodies;

WHEREAS, these activities also contributed to the worsening health condition of those with respiratory ailment or weak immune system due to the stenchy smoke that they inhale;

WHEREAS, to prevent untimely deaths, injuries and damage to properties, and as a matter of public safety, there is an imperative need to prohibit the use or play of firecrackers and pyrotechnic devices in all public places of Quezon City;

WHEREAS, in the exercise of its police power, the City Council, as the local legislative body, may enact legislative measures or prescribe regulations to protect public health, uphold morals, and ensure public order and safety;

WHEREAS, Section 16 of Republic Act No. 7160, otherwise known as the Local Government Code of 1991, explicitly provides that "Every local government unit shall exercise the powers expressly granted, those necessarily implied therefrom, as well as powers necessary, appropriate, or incidental for its efficient and effective governance, and those which are essential to the promotion of the general welfare. x-x-x".
