WHEREAS, the Local Government Code of 1991 expressly grants the Sangguniang Panlungsod the power to enact and approve ordinances meant to prevent and suppress lawlessness, disorder and violence and impose penalties;

WHEREAS, there has been a rise in the number of cases of break-in robberies wherein the vaults of banks as well as pawnshops were perforated by drilling a hole underground to gain access and empty its contents;

WHEREAS, setting a standard minimum thickness and composition of the concrete base where the vault will be fixed will further secure the valuables contained therein.
