WHEREAS, Brother Eraño G. Manalo, the erstwhile Executive Minister of Iglesia Ni Cristo (Church of Christ) passed away last August 31, 2009;

WHEREAS, Brother Eraño G. Manalo has remained to be an icon of spiritual renewal and patriotic direction in an era of political chaos and economic crisis through the pristine Biblical teachings he had instilled among the church members, and which are currently being propagated throughout the nation and the world;

WHEREAS, Brother Eraño G. Manalo's mandate of overseeing the church brought with it tremendous blessings of moral restitution and social harmony and order, even as the members are enjoined as a matter of church doctrine, to lead an upright and lawful way of life;

WHEREAS, Brother Eraño G. Manalo left a legacy of genuinely looking after the general welfare of members and non-members alike forging socio-civic outreach programs like the Lingap sa Mamamayan (Aid to Humanity) where the church administration responds immediately to the needs of the citizens beset by man-made and natural calamities. This compassionate heart he had bequeathed to Brother Eduardo V. Manalo;
