WHEREAS, the present clothing allowance granted to all employees years ago in the amount of Six Hundred Pesos (P600.00), is no longer realistic as the prices of all prime commodities has gone up including clothing materials as well as fees for made to order charges;

WHEREAS, the amount of One Thousand Two Hundred Pesos (P1,200.00) proposed increase for clothing allowance is just enough to purchase four (4) new uniforms to meet the prescribe uniform days for one week (one uniform per day) including the cost of made to order materials;

WHEREAS, realizing the need to wear uniform in the prescribed days period as strictly being enforced by our management and considering that the present clothing allowance of Six Hundred Pesos (P600.00) could no longer meet the spiraling cost of materials;
