WHEREAS, it is no secret that drug addiction is rampant in the country involving all segments of society, sparing no one regardless of race, creed, age and sex;

WHEREAS, drug addiction is more prevalent in depressed areas, involving people of tender age who are more susceptible to temptation especially school children who are the favorite target of drug pushers;

WHEREAS, due to the fact that allowances of school children are not enough to sustain drug addiction, criminality is the eventual result;

WHEREAS, not only people in the depressed areas are affected but also persons in all strata of society;

WHEREAS, drug addiction breeds so many evils such as murder, theft, robberies, prostitution, estafa and other crimes that continually plague the country;
