WHEREAS, fire recently destroyed the houses of the residents of Barangays Escopa II and IV in the 3rd District of Quezon City, forcing said fire victims to live in makeshift shelters where they are exposed to elements;

WHEREAS, there is an urgent need to extend financial assistance to the fire victim families in said barangays in order to enable them to rebuild their houses and mitigate the effects of said conflagration;

WHEREAS, it is the responsibility of the City Council to make suitable provisions to protect the public from conflagration and to prevent and mitigate the effects of famine, storms and other public calamities, and provide relief to victims thereof;

WHEREAS, in compliance with the aforesaid responsibility of the City Council, it was deemed necessary to extend financial assistance to said fire victim families for the reconstruction of their houses, in line with the housing program of the Quezon City Government;
