WHEREAS, considering the meager income the Barangay Officials are receiving, it is a boost to their morale and dignity if they are supplied uniforms to be worn during special occasions such as Barangay Council meetings, General Assembly meetings, Anniversary celebrations and/or other official functions pertinent to their positions as elected/appointed Barangay Officials;

WHEREAS, wearing of uniforms is a manifestation to distinctly and honorably distinguish them from the rest of the barangay officials in the Philippines;

WHEREAS, wearing of uniform is, likewise, a symbol of awareness of their duties, functions and responsibilities as public servants of Quezon City and their country;
