WHEREAS, Proclamation No. 247, "Declaring the Month of September of Every Year as Development Policy Research Month," issued by then President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo, calls for the promotion, enhancement, instilling, and drawing nationwide awareness and appreciation of the importance and necessity of policy research as a tool for national socio-economic development and for insuring the support of the public at large for all activities aimed at advancing the quality and standard of policy research in the country;

WHEREAS, Section 476 of the Local Government Code of 1991 provides for the mandatory appointment of the Planning and Development Coordinator, institutionalized in the City through Ordinance No. SP-2672, S-2017, entitled "An Ordinance Rationalizing the Functional Structure of the Quezon City Planning and Development Department," which, among others, is responsible for (1) formulating integrated economic, social, physical, and other development plans and policies for consideration of the local government development council, (2) conducting continuing studies, research, and training programs necessary to evolve plans and programs, and (3) integrating and coordinating all sectoral plans and studies undertaken by different functional groups or agencies;

WHEREAS, according to the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA), policy research plays a critical role in the socioeconomic advancement of the Philippines and there is a need to cultivate a strong culture of research and use of data and evidence among the country's national and local decision makers in policymaking and program planning and to raise the public's literacy on important socioeconomic issues;

WHEREAS, in the pursuit of economic development and progress, the State shall give priority to the creation of a critical mass of elite students and professionals who shall take the lead in harnessing science and technology, culture and arts, policy and social research, and related disciplines towards accelerating the productivity of the country's human resources;

WHEREAS, the City Mayor, Honorable Ma. Josefina "Joy" Belmonte, in her 14-Point Agenda, states that the success of the City lies upon having trustworthy leadership, data and information-driven decision making, and an efficient and well-functioning government system that is worthy of public trust;

WHEREAS, Mayor Belmonte, citing the work of the City Council, also highlighted the need for efficiency and professionalism that puts a premium on excellence over political expediency and the attainment of a high standard of service through adequate research that is sensitive to all opinions of the various sectors and accommodates the current concerns of the public;
