WHEREAS, Ordinance No. SP-57, S-93, established the Office of Senior Citizens Affairs (OSCA) primarily for the welfare of the estimated eighty thousand (80,000) senior citizens in Quezon City;

WHEREAS, Resolution No. SP-621, S-96, urges operators of business establishments in Quezon City to consider the employment of senior citizens on a part-time basis in whatever capacity that would maximize their potentials and continue their valuable contribution to national development;

WHEREAS, for the mutual benefit and protection of the senior citizens there is a need for them to organize;

WHEREAS, cohesiveness of the various groups or organizations of senior citizens organizations is an essential ingredient to the efficient delivery of services to them;

WHEREAS, the uncontrolled proliferation of senior citizens organizations is not conducive to the cohesiveness of the entire body;

WHEREAS, the expansion of its functions would make the Office of Senior Citizens Affairs a more responsive and effective vehicle for the care of the elderly members of the City;

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF QUEZON CITY IN SESSION ASSEMBLED:

SECTION 1. Section 3 of Ordinance No. SP-57, S-93, is hereby amended, as follows:
