WHEREAS, the 1987 Constitution of the Philippines gives great importance to the sanctity of the family and avowed that the State shall protect and strengthen the family as a basic autonomous social institution. X

WHEREAS, any form of gambling is considered detrimental to the State policy of protecting the Filipino family because gambling diverts precious time a family member is supposed to spend with his or her family to otherwise unproductive activities;

WHEREAS, because of the advancement of technology, gambling is no longer confined to casinos or other traditional gambling establishments, making gambling accessible to almost all individuals;

WHEREAS, Section 458 (a) (1) (v) of Republic Act No. 7160, otherwise known as the Local Government Code of 1991, authorizes the Sangguniang Panlungsod to enact ordinances, approve resolutions and appropriate funds for the prevention or suppression of gambling establishments and such other activities inimical to the welfare and morals of the inhabitants of the city.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF QUEZON CITY IN REGULAR SESSION ASSEMBLED,

SECTION 1. Declaration of Policy. – Consistent with the constitutional policy of protecting the family as the foundation of the Filipino nation, the Quezon City government considers gambling as an activity inimical to the interest of the Filipino family. In connection with this policy and pursuant to Section 458 (a) (1) (v) of the Local Government Code, the City Council enacts this Ordinance to regulate the operation of gaming establishments within the territorial jurisdiction of Quezon City.

SECTION 2. Definition of Terms. – As used in this Ordinance, the following terms shall be construed as follows:

15.1 Limitations – Only cockfighting activities sponsored by the barangay council shall be considered for a short term special permit. These are subject to the following conditions:

1. Except as provided in this Ordinance, cockfighting shall be allowed in this City only in licensed cockpits and in arenas duly authorized by the City government to be a venue of such event. No cockfights shall be held on December 30 (Rizal Day), June 12 (National Heroes Day), Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Black Saturday, Election or Referendum Day and during Registration days for such election or referendum;

2. A Special Permit for cockfighting outside a licensed cockpit shall only be allowed during the barangay patronal fiesta sponsored by the Barangay Council for a period of not more than three (3) days, provided that no cockfight shall be held during the regular scheduled cockfights in licensed cockpits. In the case of barangays in which different patron saints are celebrated, the original or the main patron saint/s as provided in Section 6 is considered for purposes of the issuance of a Special Permit.

3. No puroks and sitios shall be issued with a Special Permit for cockfighting during the celebration of their founding anniversary or patronal fiesta.

4. No cockfights shall be allowed within a two-hundred (200) meters radius of any place of worship and institute of learning.

5. A temporary cockpit shall be established in enclosed premises which must have one or more gates or doors for definite points of entry and exit and with sufficient space for the bettors, gaffer, bet taker and referee.

6. No person below twenty-one (21) years of age shall be allowed to enter the temporary cockpit. In case of doubt on age, the promoter shall require him/her to produce the necessary identification document that will ascertain his/her true age.

7. No other games of chance of any kind shall be permitted on the premises where the cockfighting activity is held.

8. Proceeds of the cockfighting activity shall go directly to the Barangay's General Fund and shall be utilized for its development projects subject to the usual accounting procedures. γ Δ δ

[Signature]

15.2 Submission of activity report – Not later than three months after the cockfighting activity is held, an official activity report signed by all the members of the number of cockfights (soltada), amount of funds raised, and the barangay development projects to which the proceeds are to be/were used, shall be submitted to the Barangay Operations Center and the Sangguniang Panlungsod Committee on Games and Amusement thru the Secretary to the Sanggunian. Failure by the Barangay Council to submit an activity report shall be grounds for denial of a Special Permit for future cockfighting activities.

15.3 Supervision, management and accountability– The general supervision, the management of peace and order, public safety and security, sanitation and environmental protection, and the accountability for any untoward incidents in the conduct of the cockfighting activity shall be vested, as an obligation, to the Barangay duly authorized by virtue of this Ordinance.

SECTION 16. Effect of lack of special permit. - No business permit shall be issued to any person engaged in the operation of a gaming establishment who fails to present a special permit upon application for the issuance or renewal of business permit.

The City Government reserves the right to immediately close all gaming establishments who are operating with expired licenses and those who are operating other games of chance other than those games for which their permit was issued for. ✕

SECTION 17. Taxes, fees and charges. - All gaming establishments covered by this Ordinance shall be required to pay 3% of gross sales and all taxes, fees and charges imposed under the Quezon City Revenue Code of 1993, as amended and other ordinances and regulations promulgated by the Quezon City government.

SECTION 18. Penalties. - Any violation of any provision of this Ordinance shall be punished as follows:
