WHEREAS, in 2012, the Quezon City government enacted its landmark legislation for children entitled the Quezon City Children's Code of 2012 (Ordinance No. SP-2180, S-2011) in acknowledgment of its role, obligation and commitment to ensure the child's survival, development, protection, and participation;

WHEREAS, national laws (Presidential Decree No. 603, Republic Act No. 9344, DILG MC 2002-121, 2008-125) mandates every local government unit to ensure the protection of children;

WHEREAS, setting internationally accepted minimum standards will ensure the safety and welfare of the pupils, and will further maintain the city's status as one of the child-friendly cities with efficient and effective policies, programs, and projects for the well-being of children.
