WHEREAS, Values Education is one of the most effective antidote against the virus of evils in our society today as it plays a crucial and significant role in the moral regeneration program of the government;

WHEREAS, taking cognizance of the importance and imperativeness of Values Education, the then Department of Education, Culture and Sports launched the Values Education Program in 1988 which was designed "to enhance human development and strengthen the moral fiber of the Filipinos through the educational experience;

WHEREAS, a number of provisions in the Philippine Constitution pertaining to education, youth, nationalism, patriotism, family and moral well-being can be attained through Values Education, one subject area which gives humanity to education and emphasizes the duties of an individual to himself/herself, family, community, country and fellow human beings;

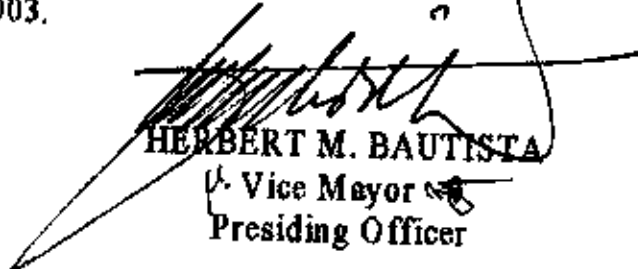

ling.

WHEREAS, in the midst of moral regeneration program, an untimely move was taken to do away with values education as a separate subject in the High School Curriculum, that negates the essence, substance and direction of the government's moral reorganization program.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF QUEZON CITY IN SESSION ASSEMBLED, to urge, as it does hereby urge, the Honorable Edilberto C. De Jesus, Secretary of the Department of Education, to retain Values Education as a separate subject in the high school curriculum.

ADOPTED: May 13, 2003.
